Note: Before expending any resources on completing applications to the following funders you should first check that the funding source is still available and most of all relevant to project and/or organisation that will be applying.

This document was originally produced in May 2010 and was refreshed in November 2012. It aims to provide a list of funding opportunities available to clubs, coaches and volunteers involved with sport.

Funding is a constantly changing environment and funding streams come and go on a regular basis. For this reason please double check that the following funding sources are still open and that your project fits the criteria before you start any application process.

If you have any questions in relation to funding or the application process or if you discover a new funding stream you would like to share then please feel free to contact us by email at funding@oxfordshiresport.org or call 01865 252676.

If you would like to receive our eNews with the latest funding opportunities and closing dates then please register here www.oxfordshiresport.org/register.

If you can't find what you're looking for within these pages, try www.grantnet.com/ to search over 5000 funding schemes available across the UK across all sectors or the Oxfordshire Guide to Funding <http://www.oxnet.org.uk/funding/guides> for cross sector funding in Oxfordshire.

If you need a translation, a larger print version, or a copy of this publication in another format please contact us.

Note: Before expending any resources on completing applications to the following funders you should first check that the funding source is still available and most of all relevant to project and/or organisation that will be applying.

All England Netball Association - Youth Trust	No set maximum, but generally up to £5000	The All England Netball Association Youth Trust ("the Trust") was established in 1984 as a charitable trust. It is a not-for-profit educational charity registered with the Charities Commission, which exists to support individuals and organisations in the development of sport for young people (under 21). The Trust's objectives include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Provision and maintenance of netball equipment and facilities for young people • Promotion and provision of courses, lectures, demonstrations and coaching for pupils, students and teachers involved in netball • Provision of facilities for physical recreation in the interest of personal development of young people • Promotion and provision of research and study for the development of netball The Trust's funds derive from donations made in previous years and from the income on its bank balances. The Trust has always taken a conservative approach to investment, despite recent changes in law allowing investment in a wider range of investments. The Trust has to balance the amounts which it is requested to donate against both the Trust's objectives and the funds available to it.	For further information and/or an application form please download the following: AENA Youth Trust Application Form AENA Youth Trust Guidance Notes for Applicants http://www.englandnetball.co.uk/About_Us/AENA_Youth_Trust.php PLEASE NOTE: The AENA Youth Trust are NOT accepting any applications at present. This will be discussed further at an EN board meeting. An update will be given when this position changes. Current as at November 2012.

Fundrazor	No specified amount	Our vision is to become your most important fundraising partner We want to give you great ideas. We want to inspire you. We want to help you. And here's our plan. We're teaming up with leading entertainment partners and venues across the UK to supply you with unbeatable ticket offers for fundraising groups. All the tickets are cut-price. The prices are so low you'll think you're dreaming. The tickets you buy can all be sold on to family and friends for the full price and all the money you raise you keep! We launched with a 'Fundrazor at the Dogs' in 2007 and already we've helped raise over £1 million for over 2000 sports clubs teams up and down the country.	http://www.fundrazor.com/
Garfield Weston Foundation	There is no limit on the size of grant. Every application is considered on its own merits.	The trustees have no specific priorities, nor any exemptions excepting animal welfare charities. They are inclined to resist funding an individual salary but are prepared to consider making a donation towards general running costs. Provide one-off cash donations, although they are prepared to receive a further application after a period of one year. The Foundation supports only UK registered charities unless the organisation has "exempt" or "excepted" status - churches, hospitals, educational establishments and housing corporations qualify under these criteria	02075896363 www.garfieldweston.org

Vcashpoint - Vinspired scheme	up to £500	vInspired Cashpoint is open for business once again, giving young people the opportunity to bring their ideas for social action projects to life. The concept is simple. Anyone between the ages of 14-25 who has an idea to solve an issue in their community – vInspired wants to help them solve it. How? vInspired is offering grants of up to £500 to turn young people’s ideas into reality and get their projects off the ground. The great thing about Cashpoint is that once a funding plan has been established, young people are given total freedom to carry out their project in exactly the way they imagined it. It’s already changed many young people’s lives and transformed communities for the better.	http://vinspired.com/vcashpoint

Sports Aid (Individual)	Unspecified	Young athletes, both able-bodied and those with a disability, are nominated to SportsAid for financial support by their sport's own national governing body (NGB). This ensures the right athletes are helped at the right time, and in the right way. It is a proven and established process that makes a genuine difference. At the 2008 Olympics in Beijing, 18 of Britain's 19 gold medals were won in events that involved SportsAid athletes. SportsAid awards are generally given to athletes between the ages of 12 and 18 (older for athletes with a disability) who compete in 75 sports, including 27 disability disciplines. Competing at the national and international levels, as these athletes do, takes a huge physical, mental and financial commitment. Our awards help them with essential costs such as travel, training, accommodation, competition fees and equipment – on which an athlete spends, on average, more than £5,000 a year. To find out if you could qualify for a SportsAid award contact your sport's NGB directly.	http://www.sportsaid.org.uk/home

Disability Grants

Name of Grant	Grant available	Description of grant	Deadlines/Contact
ACT Foundation	There is no maximum grant size. Our smallest grant has been just £100 and our largest £4 million.	ACT provides grants to individuals and other charities, principally in the UK, with the aim of enhancing the quality of life for people in need, (specifically the mentally and physically disabled). Our grants generally fall into the following areas: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Building - funding modifications to homes, schools, hospices etc. 2. Equipment - provision of specialised wheelchairs, other mobility aids and equipment including medical equipment to assist independent living. 3. Financial assistance - towards the cost of short-term respite breaks at a registered respite centre. Projects that intend to be a platform for continuing services will be expected to demonstrate sustainability. ACT would be concerned to be a sole funder of projects that require ongoing support.	http://www.theactfoundation.co.uk/apply-for-a-grant When to apply You can apply for a grant at any time. Trustees meet four times a year, but you do not need to time your application to coincide with these meetings. Procedures exist to give approvals between meeting dates, where necessary.
