Dear EIBA Contact,

Free Water Audit Offer

EIBA Ltd member Melton & District Indoor Bowls Club, has benefited from refunds of £1,400 and annual savings of £1,600 p.a. from having their water charges audited by Water Audit Services.

Water authorities across the UK are often found to be charging their customers incorrectly for water and sewerage services. The EIBA, therefore, are delighted to recommend the offer of a free audit of your water costs by Water Audit Services.

- The audit will identify where cost levels/charges and consumption are not appropriate and the remedial action to be taken to correct the account.
- If a member wishes to adopt any recommendations, Water Audit Services handle all issues and negotiation with the water authority until everything is resolved.
- At the end of the exercise, the worst case scenario is that Clubs will have all water charges validated as being correct, at no cost whatsoever to the members.
- Finally, by consuming water more efficiently, we all play a part in reducing our impact on the environment.
- Water Audit Services earn their fee from a share, for a limited period only, of the clearly auditable savings and refunds that they secure for EIBA Affiliated Clubs.

"We were unsure of the need for an audit but since the cost to us for Water Audit Services to assess the potential was £nil, we knew we had nothing to lose. The results have been impressive, as not only have we received refunds from our water supplier but significant annual cost savings too. Furthermore, we did not have to do anything as Water Audit Services handled all the issues with the water company. I would happily recommend this service to all EIBA members"

Robert Welborn, Chairman, Melton & District Indoor Bowls Club.

Robin Gregory of Water Audit Services is really looking forward to this venture with the EIBA and its members:

"I'm very excited about the cost benefits that Indoor Bowls Clubs could enjoy by undertaking a water audit with ourselves. It's free, won't in any way disrupt their day to day activities and they are completely in charge of whether they wish to pursue any of the recommendations or not; it is their call. We look forward to talking to all EIBA Affiliated Clubs over the coming months."

To find out how this new service can benefit your club, contact:

Robin Gregory, Water Audit Services
