EIBA Safeguarding Bursary

English Indoor Bowling Association Ltd is pleased to announce the introduction of a new bursary scheme that will enable Club and County members attending safeguarding training to claim back 50% of the course cost. Payment will be made when the applicant has successfully completed the training and returns the Safeguarding Bursary Application Form together with a copy of the invoice and relevant certificate.

Safeguarding courses are available to all members.

For more information on the generic Sports Coach UK 'Safeguarding & Protecting Children' course go to: <https://www.sportscoachuk.org/workshops/workshop-search>. Alternatively, you can go direct through your local CSP http://www.eiba.co.uk/csp/csp_summary.php

For a detailed 'Safeguarding in Bowls – Time to Listen' course that targets Welfare Officers these are available through the Bowls Development Alliance - <http://www.safeguardingbowls.org/training.html> which includes bowls-specific examples.

Please complete the Safeguarding Bursary Application Form in full to apply for a EIBA Ltd Safeguarding Bursary.

N.B.

The Safeguarding Bursary covers 1 Member per Club per year from 1st December - 30th November.
